

DEED OF GIFT:
Volunteer Interviewer

The Deportation Repair Project is a campaign of the Immigrant Law Group (and several partner organizations) that will tell the personal and legal stories of individuals who have been deported from the United States under the Criminal Alien Program. The purpose behind telling the personal and legal stories is to create a human-side to the politically impenetrable “criminal alien” moniker and permit an authentic discussion to take place about the impact the deportation has on real facts and real people.

To this end, oral history interviews are being conducted with individuals who have been deported from the United States under the Criminal Alien Program. To ensure that the interview/s that you conduct as a volunteer interviewer can be archived and used for the project, you are asked to sign the following agreement. Before doing so, you should carefully read it and ask any questions regarding its terms and conditions.

I, _____ [interviewer], of _____
_____ [address, city, state, zip code] permanently donate and convey all interviews that I conduct for the Deportation Repair Project to the Immigrant Law Group’s Deportation Repair Project. In making this gift, I understand that I am conveying all right, title, and interest in copyright that I might hold as joint author to Immigrant Law Group for the Deportation Repair Project, including the right to edit and create derivative works from the interview. I understand that I must transfer all video, audio, notes and derivative works to Immigrant Law Group and that I will retain no copy of any kind.

I understand that I will have the opportunity to review the video, audio and derivative works before it is made available by the Immigrant Law Group’s Deportation Repair Project for broader public dissemination. I also understand that the Immigrant Law Group’s Deportation Repair Project may choose to deposit the interview with an appropriate library, community or university archive or collection. Future uses may include quotation and publication or broadcast in any media, including the Internet.
